

OCF Transfer Student Application for 2023-24

Page 1

Section 1

Welcome Oxnard College Students!

The Oxnard College Foundation offers a wide variety of scholarship grants to students based on academic status, major, career path, leadership, GPA, and additional criteria.

Here are a few tips when completing this application:

1. Questions or need assistance? Please contact us at ocfscholarships@vccd.edu or stop by our office in Administration - we are here for you!
2. Visit the Library Resource Center for assistance on the development of your essay questions.
3. The application will show 45 minutes in the upper right corner and begin counting down -- this feature is for security purposes in case the application is not being worked on. The timer will constantly refresh as you work through your application and reset to 45 minutes. If you leave the database idle, it will logout. If you are logged out, not to worry, the information you add in your application will be automatically saved, and you can log in again to access your application. Your application will be available to work on until the deadline date.
4. As you answer the questions on your application, you are applying for scholarship grants. For a complete listing of the scholarship grants, please view the Scholarships Library on the main page for Scholarship Manager.

Please read the following prompt below and select your answer to continue applying for scholarship grants. Questions? Please email ocfscholarships@vccd.edu or stop by the Oxnard College Foundation Office in Administration.

I hereby authorize Oxnard College to share
my student information (GPA, unofficial transcript, Financial Aid) with Oxnard College Foundation for the purposes of applying for scholarship grants. *
